

European Suzuki Viola Gathering 2017

Watford Music School
Watford, UK
February 17-19, 2017

Registration Now Open

ESVG-17 will bring together Suzuki viola pupils, teachers, families and interested observers from across the European Suzuki Association (ESA).

ESVG-17 will be a wonderful opportunity for ESA violists and teachers to meet and to play music together.

ESVG-17 is also intended to increase dialogue within the ESA viola community and to strengthen the role of this beautiful instrument in our Suzuki communities.

Musical Direction: Juan Drown (UK), Joanne Martin (France/Canada)

ESVG-17 will be more informal than many other Suzuki workshops. Those who teach at ESGV-17

Watford Music School

will do so on a volunteer basis so that we can keep registration fees low. We have included sessions for non-violists so that all family members may join in, as well as sessions specifically for ESA viola teachers.

ESVG-17 will include

- Opening play-in
- Traditional viola group classes
- Viola choir and viola ensemble
- Viola for violinist classes for Suzuki violin pupils and teachers
- Viola for parents class
- Parent/teacher round table
- Teacher brunch and discussion session
- Teacher ensemble – reading session
- Saturday evening recital and reception
- Final concert Sunday afternoon

*As the greatest expert and judge of harmony, he liked best to play the viola...
C. P. E. Bach writing about J. S. Bach*

Travel Watford is easy to reach from Heathrow Stansted, Gatwick and Luton airports. Watford is on two London subway lines and is also on a main railway line. Watford Music School is on several local bus routes.

Watford and London

On-line Registration is now open at <http://www.europeansuzuki.org/events/view/2017-02-17esvg17uk>

Meals will be provided at the Watford Music School and are included in your registration fee.

Accommodation There are many hotels and guesthouses in and near Watford, in a variety of price ranges. Some suggestions regarding accommodation may be found on the registration website

Administration and questions For all questions, please contact Peter King (France/Canada), administrator of ESGV-17.
Email: esvg2017@gmail.com