

Give a Child a Teacher

My name is Guillem Calvo and I am a SUZUKI™ Violin Teacher and Instructor living in the UK.

I began my SUZUKI™ journey in Barcelona at the age of 3 with a teacher who was trained in France by Christophe Bossuat. After graduating from the Royal College of Music in London, I decided to train as a SUZUKI™ teacher with the British Suzuki Institute where I am now working on my Instructorship with a view to qualifying as a Teacher Trainer. I am also a Suzuki parent to my 3-year-old daughter and so am coming full circle and learning from a new perspective!

My reason for starting this 100 days Practice Challenge is to give something back to the European SUZUKI™ community. I am grateful for everything I have learned over the years and also for all the support I have had from Teacher Trainers and colleagues. I cannot think of a better way than to pass on the gift of music to children throughout the ESA region, especially during these challenging times we all find ourselves in.

I would like to encourage as many teachers and families as possible to join me for my 100 Days Practice Challenge and to help me raise a collective sum of money for the ESA Give a Child a Teacher campaign.

Let us make a positive change in 2021 by practising together and sharing our love for music. Let us nurture each and every family and encourage them to join us in this Practice Challenge. Let us work together to give many more families in the ESA region new SUZUKI™ teachers so that we can all continue to share the SUZUKI™ spirit!
